The NV200 is quiet and ideal for use in low-noise environments. Bedrooms, studies, dormitories, treatment rooms and nurseries can all benefit from Novaerus clean air.

Safe and effective protection for home, work place, patient waiting and consulting rooms, aged care and child care facilities.

NV200 has been acclaimed* as a valuable health protecting resource by the Korean National Fire Agency who operate a national fleet of ambulances throughout South Korea. (*testimonial available)

Novaerus dielectric plasma discharge technology is safe for continuous use around infants, the elderly and those vulnerable to air-borne contaminants.

Dielectric plasma does not use hazardous chemicals and does not require filters

Novaerus Protect 200 is not a filter - dangerous germs are killed, not captured.
